MISSION

The Bhaktivedanta Book Trust is the world's largest publisher of India's classic books of spirituality. We introduce people to the teachings of Krishna consciousness, encourage and support people's interest in those teachings, and help people understand and apply those teachings and thus progress toward the perfection of life. We serve as the official worldwide publisher for the books of His Divine Grace A. C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupāda, the founder and preeminent spiritual teacher of the International Society for Krishna Consciousness. Both in print and in other media, we publish his books – and works by other authors – in an ever-increasing number of languages.

Dear Mahārājas and Prabhus,

Please accept our humble obeisances. All glories to Śrīla Prabhupāda!

This month we will observe three very important festivals: The Appearance of Lord Balarāma (19th); Kṛṣṇa Janmāṣṭamī (26th); and The Appearance of Śrīla Prabhupāda (27th).

Śrīla Prabhupāda Said...

"Some of those who deride Kṛṣṇa and who are infected with the Māyāvādī philosophy quote the following verse from the Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam (3.29.21) to prove that Kṛṣṇa is just an ordinary man. Ahaṁ sarveṣu bhūteṣu bhūtātmā-vasthitaḥ sadā: "The Supreme is present in every living entity." We should better take note of the interpretation of this particular verse from the Vaiṣṇava ācāryas like Jīva Gosvāmī and Viśvanātha Cakravartī Ṭhākura instead of following the interpretation of unauthorized persons who deride Kṛṣṇa.

Jīva Gosvāmī, commenting on this verse, says that Kṛṣṇa, in His plenary expansion as the Paramātmā, is situated in the moving and the nonmoving entities as the Supersoul, so any neophyte devotee who simply gives his attention to the arcā-mūrti, the form of the Supreme Lord in the temple, and does not respect other living entities is uselessly worshiping the form of the Lord in the temple. There are three kinds of devotees of the Lord, and the neophyte is in the lowest stage. The neophyte devotee gives more attention to the Deity in the temple than to other devotees, so Viśvanātha Cakravartī Ṭhākura warns that this sort of mentality should be corrected. A devotee should see that because Kṛṣṇa is present in everyone's heart as the Paramātmā, every body is a temple of the Supreme Lord; so as one offers respect to the temple of the Lord, he should similarly properly respect each and every body in which the Paramātmā dwells. Everyone should therefore be given proper respect and should not be neglected."

– Bhagavad-gītā 9.11: Purport

Kṛṣṇa who is known as Govinda is the Supreme Godhead. He has an eternal blissful spiritual body. He is the origin of all. He has no other origin and He is the prime cause of all causes.

– Brahma-saṁhitā 5.1

Nectar of the Month

This month's nectar is a meditation on Lord Balarāma.

NECTAR OF THE MONTH

The Appearance of Lord Balarāma

In the Upaniṣads it is stated, nāyam ātmā bala-hīnena labhyaḥ. The purport is that one cannot attain the supreme platform of self-realization without being sufficiently favored by Balarāma. Bala does not mean physical strength. No one can attain spiritual perfection by physical strength. One must have the spiritual strength which is infused by Balarāma, or Saṅkarṣaṇa. Ananta, or Śeṣa Nāga, is the source of the power which sustains all the planets in their different positions. Materially this sustaining power is known as the law of gravitation, but actually it is a display of the potency of Saṅkarṣaṇa. Balarāma, or Saṅkarṣaṇa, is the source of spiritual power, or the original spiritual master.

Therefore Lord Nityānanda Prabhu, who is also the incarnation of Balarāma, is the original spiritual master. And the spiritual master is the representative of Balarāma, the form of the Supreme Personality of Godhead who supplies spiritual strength. In the Caitanya-caritāmṛta it is confirmed that the spiritual master is the manifestation of the mercy of Kṛṣṇa.

— Krishna Book: Prayers by the Demigods for Lord Kṛṣṇa in the Womb

BBT CUSTOMER POLICIES

Please note and adhere to the following:

1. INVOICE PAYMENTS: It is expected that all BBT customers will get current in their invoice payments at the end of 60 days in order to receive another shipment from the BBT. It is imperative that all customers be current at the end of the year so we can start the new year with all accounts balanced.

2. PRE-PAID SHIPPING: The BBT pre-pays shipping to all our customers in order to save you unnecessary problems in receiving shipments. However, this puts a huge strain on our cash flow! Therefore all customers must have a valid credit card on file so that the BBT can immediately recover prepaid shipping costs.

SPECIAL REQUEST: We would like to thank all ISKCON Temples, Centers and BBT Customers for your ongoing support of the BBT and continuing service to Srila Prabhupada's Sankirtan Mission. In order to maintain a fully stocked warehouse for 2024 and responsibly take care of BBT financially, we are requesting that all invoices – new and overdue – be paid in full as soon as possible.

We thank you in advance for understanding and complying with these policies. Hare Kṛṣṇa!
